

Form Submission

Question	Answer
----------	--------

Agreement Yes, but I prefer to remain anonymous

Can we publish your submission? Yes, but I prefer to remain anonymous

Name of organisation or individual making this submission

Authorised delegate/contact person

Position

Organisation

Postal address

Email

Phone number

In what capacity are you making your submission?

an employer

If other, please specify

Question	Answer
Is this a personal submission or on behalf of a professional body or organisation (please specify)? If a professional body or organisation, please specify the organisation	personal submission
Do you currently have, or have you previously had, a work-related hearing loss claim?	Yes, I currently have or previously had a work-related hearing loss claim
What would you rate the current system for workers with work-related hearing loss?	3
Are there barriers to workers accessing their work-related hearing loss entitlements?	No
Can improvements be made in the following areas?	insurer claims management
For any options you selected above, what changes can be made?	Greater open communication. Need to understand the difference between aged induced hearing loss &amp; work induced hearing loss
What would help to improve workers' use and benefit of hearing aids?	N/A

Question	Answer
----------	--------

How can the use of hearing aids for work-related hearing loss be evaluated?

Are Hearing Aids, actually work?

How can the process for servicing devices and the provision of batteries and replacement aids be improved?

Are Hearing Aids, actually work?

Hearing aids are constantly evolving with new technology and improvement. How can hearing aid quality and function be balanced with overall device cost?

Please include any other general comments not addressed above.

